From small batch distilleries producing finely balanced spirits, to vineyards crafting elegant English wines, and artisan producers developing soft drinks with real depth and natural character. We believe these creators represent the very best of British excellence.

While certain products in these categories can be challenging to source within the UK, our commitment remains unwavering. We continue to evolve our selection and strengthen our relationships with British partners who share our values of quality, sustainability and integrity. By supporting homegrown talent, we ensure that every drink we serve reflects both our heritage and our pride in British craftsmanship.

We invite you to explore the stories behind these remarkable producers and discover what makes their creations so distinctive.

LOUIS POMMERY
England

LOUIS POMMERY ENGLAND IS THE MODERN EXPRESSION OF CHAMPAGNE POMMERY'S PIONEERING SPIRIT, BRINGING CENTURIES OF CRAFTSMANSHIP FROM REIMS TO THE CHALK LANDSCAPES OF HAMPSHIRE.

In 2017, Maison Pommery became the first Champagne House to plant vines in England, establishing the Pinglestone Estate on the rolling downlands near Alresford.

Today, around 35 hectares are under vine, dedicated to classic sparkling varieties such as Chardonnay, Pinot Noir, Pinot Meunier and Pinot Gris, planted to capture the purity and precision of the region's cool-climate terroir. The first English cuvée, Louis Pommery England Brut, was released in 2018, signalling a new chapter in Franco-British sparkling wine excellence.

Sustainability sits at the heart of Pinglestone, where regenerative farming shapes every aspect of the vineyard.

Herbicides are avoided to protect the local chalk streams, and biodiversity is nurtured through eco-grazing, habitat conservation, and on-site bee hives that now produce estate honey. These efforts earned the vineyard WineGB's Sustainable Wines of Great Britain accreditation in 2021, underscoring its commitment to environmental stewardship. Guided by Pommery's pursuit of elegance, finesse, and texture, Louis Pommery England crafts 'single estate' sparkling wines that are both proudly British and unmistakably shaped by the heritage of one of Champagne's great houses.

FOUNDED IN 1812, THE HOUSE OF LAURENT-PERRIER HAS BEEN DEFINED BY ITS PIONEERING ROLE IN INNOVATING CHAMPAGNE THROUGHOUT ITS HISTORY.

Its innovation is rooted in unique savoir-faire, passed down through generations. Internationally recognised as one of the foremost names in Champagne, its success can be attributed to a deliberate policy of challenging conventional techniques while honouring traditional values, a passion for quality and, above all, respect for nature and the terroir (the natural environment in which the grapes are grown).

The success of this independent family-led House is attributed to the energy of the de Nonancourt family, headed by the late Bernard de Nonancourt, who assumed control in 1948. Bernard preserved the independence of his Champagne House and its values. These same principles guide the current management team led by his daughters Alexandra Pereyre de Nonancourt and Stéphanie Meneux de Nonancourt and his granddaughter Lucie Pereyre de Nonancourt.

In 2024 Laurent-Perrier was the first Champagne House to be bestowed the prestigious Royal Warrant by His Majesty The King, Charles III, signifying the brand's esteemed status as a purveyor of Champagne to the Royal Household.
