A day in the life of...

As Hotel Restaurant & Bar Manager you'll be responsible for overseeing all aspects of the food and beverage operations. This includes recruiting, managing staff, ensuring high levels of customer service, developing menus, maintaining inventory and budgets, and enforcing health and safety regulations. The manager must also monitor industry trends, analyse sales and financial reports, and work with marketing and sales teams to promote the hotel's food and beverage offerings. The role requires exceptional leadership, communication, and organisational skills, as well as a deep knowledge of food and beverage industry standards and best practices.

You'll always work with Aimbridge's four pillars of Food and Beverage in mind: People, Product, Guest, Performance.

What do we need from you?

- Prior experience in Restaurant & Bar Manager or a related field.
- A deep understanding of food and beverage industry standards and best practices.
- You'll be an inspirational leader with first class communication, and organisational skills.
- You'll be equipped with a commitment to delivering an exceptional guest experience and living through our brand standards
